

ENRIQUE VILLANUEVA

AN AMBASSADOR TO OUR ALIEN BROTHERS

Author of, I Lived 4 Days in the 4th Dimension, Lecturer, Hypnotherapist, Multidimensional Experimenter. A bridge builder to the other worlds.

Interviewed by Tony Camacho

WP: Please give us your name, and if you would share with us where you were born and a little bit of history about yourself as a young boy.

EV: My name is Enrique Villanueva, and I was born in Lima, Peru. I was raised in a household of a doctor and a nurse. I have a sister and a brother. I studied in a Catholic school.

WP: Alright, before we go there, was your childhood a typical childhood? I mean, a sister and a brother you said you had, which is older? What is the pecking order?

EV: My sister is older and my brother is younger.

WP: You were right in the middle.

EV: Yes. I would say it was a normal childhood. We were middle class, my father was a professional surgeon, and I was in contact with the environment of doctors.

WP: So, as you were younger, if we take yourself back for a moment to grammar school and as you were entering high school, were there any kind of unusual experiences for you. You went to school, you studied, you flirted with the young girls as you got older.

EV: All those things were normal, but then at twelve something happened to me that shifted my perception. At age twelve I started to have these astral projections, spontaneously.

WP: For the readers, could you share just a bit of what that is?

EV: In my case the experience was like I went to sleep, and suddenly I appeared somewhere else. At the time, I thought I was being transported somehow to some other place. It was like a dream for me.

WP: How would you differentiate between that experience and a lucid dream? Where you awake into the dream, and you say, "I want to move from the table to outside..."

EV: I would say the difference is when you control the astral projection, you can be aware of the moment when you separate from your body. So now you are going to identify not with the physical body, but with this body which looks alike. The difference I would say is you can control the process of getting into the astral plane. There was also a library in my home, and there were many books about not just astral projection, but meditation, and kundalini and aliens. Through meditation I had some other experiences.

WP: Did you have people around you, namely other classmates and so forth, that you were able to explore those ideas with? Perhaps saying "I read this. Have you guys ever heard of this?"

EV: I remember mentioning those things to my classmates, and no one was interested in those things.

WP: What stimulated your interest?

EV: Something happened at age seven. I was with my friends playing out in the street when I noticed a light on top of us going at high speed. The next day I heard the news about this spaceship landing on the border between Chile and Peru.

WP: When that happened, was that something that propelled you to run into your house and say "Hey! Dad, Mom, I was out there and this is what I saw. What's happening, what's going on?"

EV: Not at that moment. Not until the news. But I remember the same year we were playing again in the street. I looked up, and seeing this thing, it looked like two plates, one on top of the other. What is it? And some of the others were saying, that's an OVNI. OVNI is like UFO. It is Objeto Volador No Identificado. An Unidentified Flying Object.

WP: I see. So what was some of that information? What were the most pertinent things you were hearing?

EV: The Rahma people, a group a group who monitored all the UFO activity in south America, shared that there were bases in our solar system. Even though science says there is no life out there, the Rahma people say we are already being visited by aliens that are not naturally from this solar system, and that they have colonies in our solar system. That was the same thing these beings shared with me. [They are] underground, divided into two races. One of these races were like the workers, the other races was like the intellectual kind of beings.

WP: Did they speak to the issue that Mars at one point in time was very similar to the Earth? Where people lived above the ground?

EV: They mentioned that something happened, some kind of tragedy that destroyed the possibility of life on the surface, and they were forced to go underground.

WP: Why do you imagine that happened for you?

EV: Why?

WP: In other words, there are millions of people on the planet, billions of people, and some of them have had similar experiences to you. What do you think it was for you personally, how that happened in your world?

EV: If I'm like any other person on the planet, then why not me? It could have been anyone, right?

WP: It could have.

EV: But you are right about something. I was interested. I started meditating on the roof of my house. And then I started noticing these lights on top.

WP: Kind of like signaling you.

EV: And I was thinking, what is that? How come they don't approach me? At seventeen I was feeling more alien than normal. And then it happened in the skies. So I was thinking, if you guys are looking for a friend here. I'm open.

WP: And these are the two who communicated to you about Mars and the underground civilization?

EV: Exactly, yes. The context is very weird. I received first a message through a dream. I was taking a nap one afternoon the phone and it started talking "We are in your solar system. You asked for a friend out there. We are here. Soon we will meet." The voice shifted through the conversation; it was a male, then a female, then a kid. Then days later, I saw in the news, they were announcing that the Rahma group was going to have a meeting with aliens in Chilca desert.

WP: If you could clarify for us the Rahma group, what it means.

EV: Rahma is a group of contacts that started in the 1970s, 1974. It began with the experience of two brothers, Sixto and Charlie Paz. They were teenagers at the time, seventeen, eighteen, and Sixto, one day after a conference about telepathy and SETI, the project in the United States...it was not called SETI, in the 70s it was called Ozma. Ozma is like the grandfather of SETI. Sixto went to that conference. He was amazed at the idea of communicating through waves, through radio signals, He thought; I'm going to try to receive. Sixto received the first communication from these beings that identified himself as Oxalc.

WP: Oxalc?

EV: Oxalc. O-X-A-L-C. Oxalc said that he was actually in one of the moons of Jupiter, where they have colonies. They were not originally from this solar system, they were coming from Orion. Many thousands of years ago they arrived in our solar system looking for some material, some cesium. Through that experience Rahma grew, because it was not just the psychography, the receiving of mental communication, but then they were invited to go into the Chilca desert. In Chilca they have sightings. They saw the ships getting closer, and then eventually they had physical encounter with those beings.

WP: So it was of serendipitous that you got the call, and then you connected with the group.

EV: That's what I thought. I went to the group, and they said no, we don't want anything to do with you. And my father told me, let's go together. Let's try it out. Maybe we can find a way into that place. But it was completely dark, and we couldn't find the way. The entire place had a black out.

WP: The entire city?

EV: So I'm in my room and there is a buzz happening and I ask my brother he doesn't feel anything. And then suddenly I see these two. They looked like twins.

WP: How large were they? Your size?

EV: Very small. Less than half of my body. No hair, big eyes, black. They have some kind of, how do call that, cresta, a prominence coming from part of the skull

Even though they were so weird and different, they inspired some tenderness, but they invited me to go in. I remember entering that thing, and it was uncomfortable because there was not much space in there.

WP: How large of an object was it? 20 by 20?

EV: Yeah. So when I entered, immediately I had to adopt another position. It was not like I entered walking, I entered like this [crouching] and then I have to put myself in

I saw the moon from one of the angles, our moon.
I could see the craters very close.
At that point it was like somehow I was transported into the story they were telling me about Mars...

some kind of cubicle or something very small. I saw the moon from one of the angles, our moon. I could see the craters very close. At that point it was like somehow I was transported into the story they were telling me about Mars, and the entire story I already told you about.

WP: Quite an experience.

EV: Yeah, weird experience.

WP: So what happened from there? Now you're a certified believer, because you've had these experiences.

EV: Doubts, yes, but no certainty yet,

WP: You could have a vivid imagination.

EV: Easily discard it, this was just a dream, a nice dream but that's it. That's why I was discouraged to tell that to my friends. I decided to go to the Rahma group and explain.

WP: So that opened the door, and they said come on in.

EV: Yeah, but not just me. Sixto Paz was giving a lecture in those days, and they invited me to go to that lecture. I met with sixteen guys who were going to a Rahma place, to start training. And I said, I'm for it.

WP: In terms of your age now, you're at 17, 18, 19 years old? Is that where you're at?

EV: Yes. I was already out of high school.

WP: So you're in the group, you're learning. They're indoctrinating you, you're learning the language, whatever the protocol is. And the purpose of all this is to solidify and enhance your ability to make contact. Would that be accurate?

EV: You could say that. From their view it is a natural process of awakening humankind. I was with Rahma for maybe six weeks already, when they invited us to go into the desert. And we had a sighting with the whole group. 18 of us were there. You forget about all these people and lessons behind us. But then, when you stop and breathe, they were talking about how consciousness was going to jump into the 4th dimension.

WP: I want to come to a story that you shared with me at some point where you were, I think you were up in the mountains with some shamans who had the capacity or the ability to invite the aliens in.

EV: OK. That was after my first meeting with them. I tried this; I go to see one of these beings that appeared in the middle of my home. He was there for just a few minutes, and he gave me a short message, and he vanished.

WP: A telepathic message.

EV: He took the whole work of manifesting himself there, and I was amazed. And I was thinking maybe I'm ready for something else. I want them here. That same night, I was in my bedroom, it was like 3AM in the morning when I remember feeling this energy going through my chest like some kind of pulsating vibrating energy going through the chest and going to my back also. I opened my eyes and I saw this being, this tall, very tall guy. His head almost touches the ceiling, and his hands were open. And from the palms of his hands, this blue light, these beams of blue light come into my chest.

WP: You were lying on the bed, and he was holding his hands over your chest.

EV: Yes. I just asked for this. I remember that I looked at him, and then he stepped back toward the foot of my bed. I thought this cannot be real. And I stretched my hands, and then he stretched his and touched mine, and I felt a warmth, I felt a feeling, and I see in the bed, and then I realize, no way, the guy is here! And then I let go of the hand and closed my eyes, I knew I was going to become afraid, I was thinking he was a monster, a vampire, I opened my eyes, and he was looking at me like he was saying, don't go that way.

WP: Yeah, it's OK.

EV: I tried to relax. I went back to my bed, he stretched out his arms. Then I felt the invitation: "You can come with us now. You say you are ready." I lost consciousness. When I woke up in the morning I felt like when you drink alcohol a lot. The whole room was moving to the side. Then I feel like throwing up, I went to bathroom and threw up something, and then I feel like release. Something important happened. I was not ready at that time. That was an invitation that I declined.

WP: Let's take the journey from Peru to the States. So at what point did you leave Peru? How old were you when you left?

EV: 22. I was 22.

WP: So you're here in southern California, and you were still at some level pursuing your relationship with the Rahma group, and I guess there were Rahma cells here.

EV: Yeah.

WP: So the journey continued. I don't know if we missed something before you came here. The event where you describe it as 'aggrandizing' yourself to the size of the universe. Can you touch on that experience?

EV: Sure. That was at 20. I was in Rahma formally from 18 years old to 20. At 20, I felt that I was denied experience of going into the ship. Many things from Rahma didn't click. They talk about the expansion of consciousness, entering the 4th dimension of consciousness that all humankind was going to enter, but I didn't care about it. So I decided I was going to devote all my time to the university, I really quit Rahma. In meditation I told this guy, this alien, that I was grateful for all the experiences, but I could not continue.

WP: So from there, you come to the states.

EV: Yes, something happened that made me shift my mind, I decided to just go and live here.

WP: And you put Rahma on the back burner, so to speak?

EV: Yeah. And information world continue to come to me, my mine would accelerate and I could comprehend many things.

WP: Tell me what you mean by your mind accelerated, and you could comprehend many things. You received a download, is that what happened?

EV: I started to feel... it is like this: you take a book you have never read before, and somehow you understand in such a big way that you already know the whole book.

WP: And you knew the future book, the one he wanted to write, had given thought to writing.

EV: Yeah. Somehow you have access to a field of energy, and I was accessing that. I thought that I was going crazy.

WP: That's a lot to deal with!

EV: Yes. At the moment I thought something is wrong. Suddenly a burst of golden light exploded at the base of my spine. And I remember that it was like a fire, so real.

WP: Like your body was burning.

EV: Yeah, like in spontaneous combustion. This light started moving, and it moves like a serpent. It was going up, and as it went up it was touching different levels of energy in my body my chakras fields expanded beyond my physical borders I was like, wow, this is amazing! Is this waking up in me, what the hell is it? And then the thing touches the throat and there was an explosion of sound. It was a sound so powerful that I honestly thought that my eardrums would explode. I remember stopping breathing and covering my ears, thinking that they were probably bleeding, and thinking that I was going crazy. That was the first time I noticed my mind separating. The other side of my mind was calmer It told me 'OK, you are here now, why stop it? And it was like an ocean of thoughts, so huge! Then I noticed I could separate one from the other.

WP: You could separate the thoughts of this person from this one, or this one, or this one.

EV: Yeah, somehow I had the capacity now, and I was not afraid anymore. Suddenly I comprehended many things. This light went into my brain, and I notice the brain like it was a holographic image. I noticed spots of light bursting and connecting with lines. Then I was the whole universe. I was every planet, every thing, every living thing. I was everywhere, and I was forever.

WP: When you experienced it, did you experience it in the sense of a knowing, recognition of you as you kind of aggrandized and became in a sense the universe, that you were a God?

EV: Yes and no. You are God, but you are not the source of creation. You are a "son" God.

WP: How do you know you weren't the source?

EV: How do I know? You see, you are the source. The Father and Son, they are the same, but as you are manifesting here, you have to make the separation in order to explain what happened.

WP: Right. As you became flesh as a human, you mean.

EV: Not just human. There are many other levels where you can experience detachment from the source, like astral projection. That's not the highest form of consciousness.

WP: So that was an experience you had, and was it an experience that lasted quite a while, or was it an instantaneous experience?

EV: No, it lasted for four days. In that state of consciousness I felt that I was everything. Then I realized that I still have to come back to this reference point that was my physical manifestation. You don't need to change anything in the world, everything is perfect the You just look in amazement at everything.

WP: Would it be fair to say you see the beauty in everything? And an extension of seeing the beauty in everything is, I would describe it as seeing the God-particle in everything,

EV: Of course. When you are God, "son" God or whatever, when you are God, and you open your eyes, you can only see God WP: That was a beautiful experience. And that's what you wrote your book on, the "4 Days in the 4th Dimension".

EV: Yes.

WP: Has that been translated into an English version?

EV: No. And it will never be. Not for my will. The thing is, I wrote it when I was 33. I feel differently now. When I read that book I feel it is all lies, because you cannot use this language to express that. You can try to tell the story, but...

WP: I want to come forward; I want to address the Mt Shasta event where you actually had made a contact again.

EV: It is still difficult, that thing. I don't know how to process that. I was trying to meditate, when I noticed some movement to the side, to the right side and up the hill. Between the trees I noticed these people who were wearing these clothes that were very close to the skin, like hikers or bicyclers.

WP: How many were there?

EV: I would say about six, maybe. I didn't count them. I thought they were some club of bicycle people from Shasta, maybe. Then one of those separates from the group, and he gets to the visible part of the hill, and he faces me, and he puts his physical hand up like he's saying hello, and I did the same.

WP: How far away from you was he?

EV: Maybe 30 meters, I'm not sure how much in feet. When he did that, part of me was in denial, like, it cannot be that easy.

They cannot be aliens in the middle of the day. It was 9AM, or 10, I don't know.

WP: When you say they can't be aliens, I mean, you recognized them as aliens?

EV: Part of my mind was already thinking that guy is Santiak, I cannot avoid recognizing him. Some part of me already knows him.

WP: As an alien?

EV: Yeah. But the other part of me was, no, it cannot be that easy. If they are, you should run, or something like that. You separate your mind.

WP: I understand. In terms of a description, he was bigger, smaller...

EV: No, he was smaller. I know some races are taller than us, this Santiak, like some guys who come from Pleiades, they have a base in Venus, and they are smaller in size, maybe 5' 5". He stayed there, then from the group behind him separates a woman who was walking down, started walking towards me, and I was ready to run, I was...

WP: Where was the man? He was holding his position?

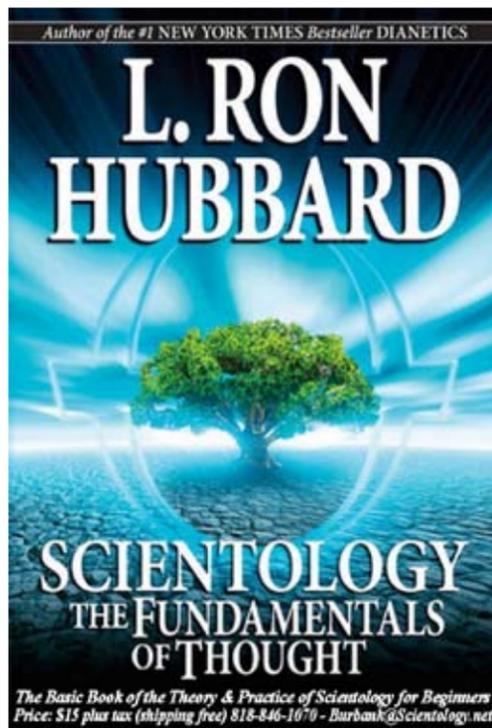

EV: Yeah, he was standing there, When she was close enough, I noticed that she was not touching the ground. Like she was somehow floating when she stepped, so what the hell was I listening to? Those things don't make sense. Did my mind complete the blanks of some weird experience I could not process, I don't know.

WP: It's an interesting experience. So she came, she was within 70 feet, 70 meters of you, and then did you have an exchange? As you recognized her as an alien, did you then proceed to ask her questions about this, that or the other?

EV: I already had an experience with her years before, but that was in an astral projection. She guided me to help some people that were in an airplane crash. So she got close to me. I closed my eyes, because I couldn't tolerate the idea of being there. I was not going to run, but still, 'I am not ready to look at you'

WP: What was it you asked her? What was it she wanted to share with you?

EV: They were talking about the entrance into the 4th dimension of consciousness. They were talking about markers that existed in...

WP: Markers?

EV: Markers of time, they said, that existed in different locations around the planet, and one of those was in Tiahuanaco portal, Tiwanaku in Bolivia, and they explained to me what was the meaning of those different things. And they gave me a completely whole different interpretation of the stone markers. They were pointing to the entrance into the 4th dimension of consciousness.

WP: Were there questions you that you asked?

EV: Yes, I asked why not have this with my friends? Troy, who has a camera, he was talking to me two days before about filming you guys. And they told me, they are here with you. That is so easy to say,

WP: What was the most significant thing you felt like they told you, or communicated to you?

EV: More than what they said, it was a feeling of, "this reality is not as real as we think."

WP: Your reality?

EV: Yes. Because I asked them, why is it that I get so afraid every time I have an encounter with you guys? I don't get it. And Santiak explained that because we were in this kind of bubble of time that was not the real time of the universe. You realize you are not real, you are an illusion. When I tell this story to the group, everybody got into the 4th dimension. Oh, we enter that, that is the new funny thing. For me it is the other thing, the border between realities is what really matters.

WP: Have you had encounters with them since that event?

EV: No.

WP: So what's the purpose of continuing with the group, and taking people up, and so forth?

EV: There are answers, and they have the right to find... they have questions, and they have the right to find their own answers.

WP: Make a left and go 100 feet.

EV: Yeah, if you decide to go further, talk to them. I don't have anything to do with that.

WP: Yeah, I understand.

EV: And I don't like that.

WP: I don't blame you. So it's been a remarkable journey, an incredible mind altering journey.

EV: I don't know where it is going to take me, but I know it is not the path of a physical encounter with them. I know there are still some other aliens for me to explore, but it's not inside a ship or anything like that.

WP: Would you like to share some closing remarks? And then I have just one last question.

EV: Closing remarks? Even though I'm talking about this like there is something that you should fear, you are encountering some brothers and sisters from other realities.

WP: They're benevolent. From your perspective the greater number of them are benevolent.

EV: Yes.

WP: And they're here to support us and help us?

EV: Some things, yes.

WP: OK. So my closing question is, since the magazine is called The Whole Person, do you see yourself as a whole person?

EV: Not without you, or the people out there. I don't think there is such thing as a whole person by himself. You are whole only when you are in community, when you are one.

WP: Beautiful. That's very nice. So it's been a pleasure, I want to thank you for sharing your time, sharing the story and giving your energy.
